Hydraulic/Way Oil Combination Offers Unique Lubrication Benefits

Hydraway lubricants are designed to function as both a hydraulic oil and a way lubricant for those systems where the same oil is used for both applications. Hydraway lubricants are also ideal for use as non-tacky way oils (useful in some Bijur systems), heavy duty machine oils and moderate duty gear oils when the viscosity is appropriate.

Hydraway lubricants provide the rust inhibition, oxidation resistance, demulsibility and low foaming properties of a hydraulic oil in addition to unique friction modification to meet the stick-slip requirements of a way oil.
